SGHS is an architecture practice based in Seoul that focuses on ‘narrative and tectonic’. They participated in ‘Graphic Design, 2005–2015, Seoul’ at Ilmin Museum of Art, ‘Rethinking Space: Voyage of Imagination’ at MMCA in 2016, and ‘Spectres of the State Avant-garde’ at the Korean Pavilion at the 16th International Architecture Exhibition of La Biennale di Venezia. In 2020 the firm was selected as the winner of two international design competitions for ‘Seoul Cultural Resource Center’ and ‘Korean War Memorial Park for Civil Victims’. SGHS was founded by Hyun Seok Kang and Gunho Kim in 2015, and has been led with partner Jongchul Lee since 2020.
